CONTROLLER'S OFFICE RELEASES LATEST MONTHLY FINANCIAL REPORT

RALEIGH – For November 2009, North Carolina's General Fund saw an increase in tax and non-tax receipts. Tax revenues, net of refunds, increased by $242.7 million, or 23.3 percent for the month of November compared to the previous year. With lower cash balances, investment earnings declined by $9.9 million or 78.6 percent for November as compared to the prior year. For the year to date through November, net tax revenues reflected a decline of $11.9 million, or 0.2 percent, with investment earnings down by $54.5 million, or 73.1 percent.

The General Fund's unreserved fund had a balance of $180.5 million as of November 30, as compared to $335.4 million at the end of October.

This information is contained in the most recent monthly report on the General Fund compiled by the Office of the State Controller. This report can be found at <http://www.osc.nc.gov/index2.html>. Go to "Recent Publications" and click on "General Fund Monthly Financial Report -- November." The OSC website includes General Fund monthly budgetary basis financial information back through June 1998.

The State Controller is North Carolina's chief fiscal officer. The Office of the State Controller serves as an independent resource to ensure the financial integrity of the State by providing accounting, disbursing, payroll, internal control and financial reporting systems that serve state agencies, employees and the public and maximizing financial return through its statewide cash management plan. The OSC issues numerous financial reports including: Financial Highlights, General Fund Monthly Financial Report, IT Expenditures Report, Statewide Accounts Receivable Report, the State's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) as well as the short, easy-to-read version of the CAFR known as the "popular" report.
